Strategic plan

The strategic plan has been developed to provide clear direction for the OTBNZ for the next 3 – 5 years. The strategy will be reviewed by the OTBNZ on an annual basis.

The OTBNZ held a facilitated workshop involving the Board members and staff in February 2010. In preparation for the meeting documents that provided an environmental scan were made available to all participants.

From the material produced at the facilitated workshop a small subgroup of Board members and the Chief Executive met to identify themes and groupings. From this the following key themes for the strategic plan were identified:

1. Leadership
2. Best practice
3. Relationships

Chairperson's Foreword

This has been a year of transition and careful succession planning. Changes of both the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), and Chair positions have been well planned, and the transition has been smooth and seamless. Andrew Charnock was welcomed as the new CEO of the Occupational Therapy Board of New Zealand (OTBNZ) in May 2009. He quickly developed existing relationships and established exciting new pathways for the future of the occupational therapy profession.

Effective and efficient relationships have continued between the OTBNZ and the New Zealand Association of Occupational Therapists (NZAOT). Further to this, and with strengthening relationships with Auckland University of Technology (AUT) and Otago Polytechnic, the Occupational Therapy Key Strategic Stakeholders group (OTKSS) continued to develop the strategy document to enable the Occupational Therapy profession to articulate and speak clearly with one voice.

Transition to practice has been a priority concern for the OTBNZ. The activity of 'Welcome to the Profession' for new graduates has continued and the development of a research project on preparedness for practice was initiated, to identify needs for effective and safe transitions to practice contexts, for new registrants. We are cognisant of the demands and changing needs of practice contexts, and this research will enable a focus on the future for occupational therapists in developing practice areas such as primary health care, population-based health and future practice areas yet unknown.

It is vital that the pre-registration education and training of occupational therapists in New Zealand is compatible and comparable with like countries. Concerns have been raised that the 3 year programme may not be meeting requirements to produce 'practice ready' registered occupational therapists. The above-mentioned research, 'Preparedness for Practice' will further assist the profession to establish whether this is valid.

The OTBNZ has continued to develop and provide significant investment and expertise in the completion of its IT development. This IT development includes design and services that will ensure that the OTBNZ has more cost-effective and efficient systems and processes, to eliminate duplication and minimise paper-based systems. This IT development will also put the occupational therapy profession in a leading role in the use of its electronic continuing competence framework for recertification.

To ensure the OTBNZ is aware of, contributing to, leading international trends regarding regulation and practitioners' competence to practise, the Chair attended the World Health Professions Conference on Regulation in Geneva, 2010. The international content and direction of regulation is in line with the OTBNZ's vision and strategic goals. We are ensuring that New Zealand is providing the very best quality and regulation of and for occupational therapists.

Occupational therapists of the future need to be competent and flexible in their practice delivery to provide services in dynamic environments yet unseen. A current challenge facing the OTBNZ is the need to shape future directions for the regulation of practitioners of the future. The continuing demands of health and social needs are resulting in the likely need to stretch the dynamic scope of occupational therapy into new and emerging practice environments. We are working towards ensuring that the future occupational therapy profession is sustainable and that the occupational therapists practising within New Zealand are competent and fit to practise.

We would like to express our thanks to all OTBNZ staff and Board members for their hard work that has resulted in a positive year for the profession. We are in an exciting time of change and development, to which occupational therapy as a profession can contribute greatly.

AUDIT REPORT

TO THE READERS OF OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY BOARD OF NEW ZEALAND'S FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2010

The Auditor-General is the auditor of the Occupational Therapy Board of New Zealand (Board). The Auditor-General has appointed me, Paolo Ryan, using the staff and resources of PKF Martin Jarvie, to carry out the audit of the financial statements of the Board, on her behalf, for the year ended 31 March 2010.

Unqualified Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements of the Board on pages 23 to 27:

- comply with generally accepted accounting practice in New Zealand; and
- fairly reflect:
 - the Board's financial position as at 31 March 2010; and
 - the results of its operations for the year ended on that date.

The audit was completed on 25 August 2010, and this is the date at which our opinion is expressed.

The basis of our opinion is explained below. In addition, we outline the responsibilities of the Members of the Board and the Auditor, and explain our independence.

Basis of Opinion

We carried out the audit in accordance with the Auditor-General's Auditing Standards, which incorporate the New Zealand Auditing Standards.

We planned and performed the audit to obtain all the information and explanations we considered necessary in order to obtain reasonable assurance that the financial statements did not have material misstatements, whether caused by fraud or error.

Material misstatements are differences or omissions of amounts and disclosures that would affect a reader's overall understanding of the financial statements. If we had found material misstatements that were not corrected, we would have referred to them in our opinion.

The audit involved performing procedures to test the information presented in the financial statements. We assessed the results of those procedures in forming our opinion.

Audit procedures generally include:

- determining whether significant financial and management controls are working and can be relied on to produce complete and accurate data;
- verifying samples of transactions and account balances;
- performing analyses to identify anomalies in the reported data;
- reviewing significant estimates and judgements made by the Board;
- confirming year-end balances;
- determining whether accounting policies are appropriate and consistently applied; and
- determining whether all financial statement disclosures are adequate.

We did not examine every transaction, nor do we guarantee complete accuracy of the financial statements.

We evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements. We obtained all the information and explanations we required to support our opinion above.

Responsibilities of the Members of the Board and the Auditor

The Members of the Board are responsible for preparing the financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice in New Zealand. The financial statements must fairly reflect the financial position of the Occupational Therapy Board of New Zealand as at 31 March 2010 and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date. The Members of the Boards' responsibilities arise from the Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act 2003.

We are responsible for expressing an independent opinion on the financial statements and reporting that opinion to you. This responsibility arises from section 15 of the Public Audit Act 2001 and section 134(1) of the Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act 2003.

Independence

When carrying out the audit we followed the independence requirements of the Auditor-General, which incorporate the independence requirements of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand.

Other than the audit, we have no relationship with or interests in the Board.

Paolo Ryan, PKF Martin Jarvie
On behalf of the Auditor-General, Wellington, New Zealand
